Phi Beta Delta: Eta Omicron Chapter

Criteria for Membership

Undergraduate students from the US will have at least: a 3.2 GPA with junior or senior standing; one successful credit-bearing education abroad experience; other coursework and/or involvement in campus activities that have expanded their world awareness and global competence; and contributions to international engagement efforts on campus.

Graduate students from the US will have at least: a 3.5 GPA; one successful credit-bearing education abroad experience from SUNY Oswego or elsewhere, either as an undergraduate student or graduate student; scholarly or creative work demonstrating international/global perspectives or international collaborations; and service contributions to international engagement efforts on campus.

International degree-seeking students will have at least: a 3.2 GPA as an undergraduate or 3.5 GPA as a graduate student; courses or activities that have strengthened their awareness and understanding of the US; and active involvement on campus with range of scholarly and service contributions.

Faculty and staff (including emeriti) will have at least: notable experience living, studying, teaching, and/or doing scholarly or creative work abroad; and significant contributions to campus internationalization efforts, such as in curriculum development, study abroad involvement, scholarly or creative work on international topics, collaboration with international partners, development of campus programming, and/or other service in support of excellence in this area.

Becoming a Member

Members are inducted annually through an application and review process. Annual inductions after Spring 2012 will occur in the Fall of each year. Please contact Ana Djukic-Cocks, President of the Eta Omicron Chapter, for more information about the process and the deadlines.
