Course Policies and Grading Information

Grading: Homework and class participation: 25%
Exams: 50%
Final exam: 25%

Attendance:

Regular class attendance is essential for success in this course. A grade of zero will be entered for work missed without a valid excuse. There is no penalty for excused absences. However, you are responsible for making up any missed work. Unexcused absences may adversely affect your final grade. You should devote at least one hour each day for Spanish homework and oral practice for success in this class. Language acquisition is a gradual process; therefore, it is important that you practice on a daily basis the skills covered in class.

Your cell phone should be in your backpack and turned off during class time.

Do not call the Modern Language Office to inform that you will be absent.

Text and workbook:

Vistas, 3rd edition, 2008, authors Blanco et al.

Workbook exercises should be prepared before class and will be checked periodically.
CD and CD-ROM exercises are supplementary and will not generally be treated in class.

Prerequisites: Spa. 101 or equivalent.

Requirements that might be satisfied: foreign language general education requirement (3 cr.), cognate requirements (3 cr.) of certain majors and programs.

Students who have a disabling condition which might interfere with their ability to complete this course are encouraged to speak, confidentially, to the class instructor, or to contact the Office of Disability Services (155 Campus Center, ext. 3358).

Intellectual Integrity

Intellectual integrity on the part of all students is basic to individual growth through college course work. When academic dishonesty occurs, the teaching and learning climate is seriously undermined and student development is impeded. For these reasons, any form of intellectual dishonesty is a serious concern and is therefore prohibited.
