Ernst & Young Lecture Series Spring 2013

Gender Equity in the Workplace

Thursdays, 6:00-7:30 pm

Everyone is welcome!

Feb. 14  “Gender, Education, and Work: Comparing Brazil and the US”

132 Campus Center

Tania Ramalho, Associate Professor, C&I, will compare women’s lives and roles in Brazil and the US, particularly with reference to education and work. Attention will be given to intersections of race, place, and social class.

Feb. 28  “Equal Work, Equal Pay” -- Lilly Ledbetter

Sheldon Hall Ballroom

This special event is made possible by support from Robert ’78 and Robbi Feinberg, Ernst & Young, the President’s Office, Auxiliary Services, School of Business, Center for Human Resource Management, School of Education, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Communication, Media, and the Arts, Women’s Studies, and the Women’s Center.

March 14  “Women and Work in Lebanon”

132 Campus Center

Ina Pfeifer Issa, Lecturer, Cross-Cultural Management, ESC in Lebanon, will examine women’s expanding work opportunities and their continuing challenges as well as attitudes towards women’s work in Lebanon.

April 4  “Women, Politics, and Work in the Middle East”

132 Campus Center

Lisa Glidden, Associate Professor, Political Science and Global Studies, will present a comparative look at the public lives of women in the Middle East, especially the widely varying circumstances of rural and urban women.

April 25  "Strategies for Advancing Women's Success"

132 Campus Center

Jocelyn Egan, Senior Vice President of Discovery Solutions and SUNY Oswego Marketing class of ’84, will talk about her career experiences and give audience members advice about her lessons learned on the road to success.

Sponsored by Ernst & Young Lectures, Women’s Studies, and Institute for Global Engagement