

Learning Objectives

1. To gain an understanding of the administrative involvement in regards to the delivery of healthcare.
2. To gain an understanding of what educational preparation is necessary for entry into various healthcare positions.
3. To learn how a patients' families are involved in the overall care of a patient.
4. The learn about the pathophysiology of various diseases.
5. To gain an understanding of the various treatments and technologies that are used in delivering healthcare (i.e. medications, surgery, radiation therapy, rehabilitation).
6. To gain and understanding of the different way(s) care is provided to different populations (i.e. gender, age).

* My personalized learning objectives are as follows:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Means of Evaluation

1. Reflective Journal – a journal must be kept for every visit to the hospital or area facility. The journal will be randomly reviewed by both the site supervisor and the faculty sponsor.
2. Three (3) written case studies that review a case that the student participated in. The case study will review the entire case, from start to finish. If the student did not participated in all stages of the patient's care, they will use the patient's file to aid in writing the case study. Case studies will be at least 2 pages in length and submitted at specified times during the course of the semester. Students will also submit an attachment that defines the terms and techniques that are cited in the case study. The attachment is unlimited in length and should be complete enough so that the student will be able to use it to answer any question about the terms/techniques explained in the case study.
3. The student will give an oral presentation for each of the 3 case reports to the other internship students, the site supervisor, and the faculty sponsor.
4. A written report on a disease of the student's choosing. The paper must cover the following aspects of the disease: (1) the history and etiology, (2) the symptoms and diagnostic procedures, and (3) methods of treatment. The paper will be at least 10 pages in length, must use at least 8 primary references, and will be submitted by the last day of classes.