

organizations and business groups and overall on campus more students participated in internships and service learning. History and Meteorology have recently established new partnerships with other education institutions. Departments and schools continue to expand their connections with alumni through newsletters and other activities. More opportunities could be pursued here.

In 2006-2007 we will:

7. Grow new partnerships between departments and external groups (community, business, or alumni) for mutual benefits.

Approved by Provost's Council 9/20/06