The Program
SUNY-Oswego offers several summer study abroad options in Nice, France. Nice is a large, attractive city in the south of France with beautiful beaches, a rich cultural heritage, and a charming city center filled with shops, cafes, and nightlife. Regional capital of the area known as the French Riviera, Nice’s economy is based almost entirely on the service, tourism, and high-tech sectors. Nice’s airport is the second busiest in France with excellent connections to the rest of France and Europe. Nice is near Monaco, Cannes, St. Tropez and other popular destinations along the Mediterranean.

The Programs

French Language, Literature, and Civilization
Situated at the University of Nice Sophia-Antipolis, this four-week program provides 20 hours per week of small group instruction in the French language, as well as literature and civilization. Beginner, intermediate, and advanced levels of language are offered. Teaching is oriented toward the acquisition or improvement of oral and written French, with language learning closely linked to study of culture. Advanced technological approaches to language learning are used.

OR

Business and Intercultural Studies
Located at the University of Nice Sophia-Antipolis, this four-week program includes courses in:
- European Economic Environment
- French Culture and Civilization
- European Corporate Governance

Courses are taught in English. Site visits to business organizations are included. Students will take two courses.
