*Tuition and fees subject to change.

First and second year undergraduate students must live on campus unless 21 years old or married.

 Holiday room and board in a campus residence hall over Thanksgiving, Winter, and Spring Break will increase costs from $300 - $1000 per academic year depending on the number of days you stay on campus over breaks.

 Graduate Students living off-campus may reduce their costs over an academic year by up to $2,000 for food and room.

Small Class Size

50 % of the classes have 19 or fewer students and 92 % of classes enroll 50 or fewer students. The student faculty ratio is 18:1. Students have easy access to their professors. Most classrooms are equipped with the latest technology and most buildings have wi-fi access. Several new buildings have spaces for students to gather and to learn.

COMPASS

Departments housed within the Compass are:- Student Advisement, First Year Programs, Transfer Services, Community Service Learning, Internships, Career Services, & Civic Engagement. http://www.oswego.edu/student/success/compass/

Location

Oswego, New York, with a population of approximately 20,000, is conveniently located 45 minutes northwest of the city of Syracuse and 80 minutes east of Rochester. Syracuse airport is located 60 kilometers south of campus. There is frequent bus service between Oswego and Syracuse with connecting service throughout the US by bus, train, and plane. New York City and Boston are six hours by car from Oswego, and Montreal and Toronto are five hours from the campus.

Safety

Oswego City is a small and safe city. Security is provided by campus police as well as the city police. Both the campus and local community are warm and friendly. Oswego is a port city and the Oswego River divides the city as it flows into Lake Ontario. Students can purchase a bus pass and ride the bus free within campus and from campus downtown.
