The Program
Students spend the first three days of this four-week program in Rome and the remaining days in Altomonte.

Rome is the capital of Italy, a font of religious authority for Catholics and a memorial to the creative imagination of the past. Known as the Eternal City to which “all roads lead,” Rome is nearly as old as Western civilization, and to visit Rome is to experience the past. Rome’s architectural grandeur and its impressive monuments remain a legacy of the city’s greatness.

Altomonte is located in the center of Calabria. This southern region is one of the most celebrated in Italy for its natural beauty and ancient history. Greek, Roman, Byzantine, and Norman monuments and ruins can be found in the South, together with a heritage of medieval and classical art. It is situated in a vast natural amphitheater between the Sila mountains and the Apennine chain. It is within two hours from Amalfi Coast and the Certosa of Padula, thirty minutes from both the Ionian and Tyrrhenian beaches, and a few minutes from the Greek ruins of Sibari. It is a town both ancient and modern, with a population of 4,000. A summer festival of art, music, and dance has given this village the nickname the “Spoleto” of the South.

Weekend excursions during the program include a trip to Pompei, visits to the museum in Sibari, and performances and shows during the summer festival in the theater of Altomonte.
