

Registration for Exploring Nature 2009

Since 1983 Exploring Nature (EN) has been an education program designed to encourage young people's curiosity and concern about their world. Participants explore and investigate life around Rice Creek while discovering nature first hand through nature walks, activities and games.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I register a child?

Registration is on a first-come basis upon receiving full payment with the completed registration materials Parts A, B, C and the medical authorization form. These forms can be sent to us by US mail or dropped off at Rice Creek. No child will be allowed to participate in activities without the completed registration materials and full payment. Upon completing your registration, a printable receipt and additional program information will be sent to you by email. Group sizes are limited and will be based on age.

2. What are the fees and deadlines?

Program fees are per child per week. Fees do not include lunch or snack and are $140 per child per week for non-members OR $125 per child per week for Rice Creek Associates family members. Registration deadline is May 27. Registrations received after this date will include a late registration fee of $25 per child in order to be processed. Completed forms and full payment of late registrations will be accepted until June 10, based on availability.

3. What are the payment methods?

Payment can be made online with your credit card. If you choose this method, return to the main EN page and you will be directed to a new page to complete the online secure payment information. You can also use the EN payment form in the registration materials and send your credit card information, cash or check payable to Oswego College Foundation, Inc. - EN 2009 by US mail or drop it off.

4. How do I request a refund?

Program fees for withdrawing are refundable, less $25 per child per week, when we receive written (excluding email) notification by June 15 that your child cannot attend. Refunds, less $25 per child per week, will be given after June 15 only for documented medical or family emergencies. Refunds will be issued as checks, unless paid by credit card.
