

ANT 410: Issues in Anthropology
Spring 2004
Dr. Ann Bunch

Project Statement

In one concise paragraph, state the following: (a) the issue/problem that you intend to research for your final paper, (b) the materials/data that you plan on using to research your paper, and (c) the method(s) that you will use in order to arrive at your own conclusion regarding the problem/issue.

The paragraph should be typed and double-spaced. Please include any references cited on a separate page. If you have begun to do preliminary research, you may include a bibliography (even you have not cited all the references in your project statement) on a separate page.

If you are having difficulties coming up with a project problem/issue, SEE ME ASAP!
