Reading Number 5
From Race Matters
By
Cornell West

Please Note: Only the first part of these highlighted sentences are written out, yet the entire sentence is important.

• p. 25 (¶ 3, line 1) “The liberal notion that more government programs can solve racial problems is simplistic…”
• p. 26 (¶ 3, line 1) “To engage in a serious discussion of race in America…”
• p. 27 (¶ 1, line 1) “To establish a new framework, we need to begin…”
• p. 27 (¶ 4, sentence 2) “The collapse of meaning in life…”
• ibid. (¶ 4, line 5) “We have created rootless, dangling people…”
• Ibid. (¶ 5, line 1) “First, we must admit that the most valuable sources…”
• Ibid. (¶ 6, line 1) “Second, we must focus our attention on the public square…”
• p. 29 (¶ 2, line 1) One essential step is some form of large-scale…”