Reading Number 20
From Laboratories of Democracy
by David Osborne

Please Note: Only the first part of these highlighted sentences are written out, yet the entire sentence is important.

• p. 127 (¶ 3, line 1 & the following sentence) “The notion that America has left the industrial era is now…”
• p. 128 (¶ 3, last sentence) “Many progressive reforms introduced in the…”
• p. 128 (¶ 4, line 1) “This reality led Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis…”
• p. 133 (¶ 2, line 12) “The fundamental goal is no longer to create – or eliminate…”
• p. 133 (last sentence & next sentence on following page) “Today both Democratic and Republican governors understand…”
• p. 134 (¶ 2, line 4) “They believe that many of the large, centralized…”
• p. 134 (last ¶) “The new paradigm also involves new assumptions about the…”
• Instructor’s Note: The most recent “reform” of prescription drug support was such a buyout, probably the largest to date.