About the OAR Program...

Position Synopsis
Oswego Admissions Representatives (OAR’s) will function as professionals in support of the college admissions and enrollment efforts. The primary purpose of this voluntary position is to increase personal contact with prospective students by a variety of means, such as leading campus tours.

Selection Process
Please be aware that although the OAR program is voluntary, it is a very prestigious and selective program. An interview will be required for all applicants, and if accepted, further training and an evaluation will follow.

Training Process
- Attend an initial informational meeting where you will receive our training manual
- Shadow a minimum of 3 tours by current Admissions tour guides
- When confident, complete a short quiz on your knowledge of the campus
- Schedule an evaluation with an Admissions intern
- Once tour-ready, OAR’s are able to lead their own tours and are eligible for possible employment in the Office of Admissions

OAR Benefits
- Become more involved in your educational experience
- Contribute to Oswego's future
- Gain valuable communication and leadership skills essential for future resumes
- Potential to be hired as a paid tour guide or Admissions intern
- Earn community service hours

Minimum Qualifications
- Minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
- Effective communication skills
- Demonstrated poise and self-confidence
- Dependability and commitment to the program

If you are interested, please complete the application on our website and we will email you to schedule an interview time. You can also pick up an application from the Admissions Office and return it in person to:
