Admission to BFA Programs
Prospective students interested in Art or Graphic Design BFA degree need to submit an application to Oswego for general admissions and to the Art Department for acceptance into either the BFA Studio Art or Graphic Design programs. Each application is a separate process.

Applying to Oswego, go to:
https://www.oswego.edu/admissions/apply-now

BFA Program Application Process
If you are applying or transferring into one of the two BFA degree programs you are required to submit the following:
- a portfolio
- a statement of intent
- an annotated work list
- an application form
- copies of transcripts (these can be unofficial)

What we are looking for:
- students with an aptitude for hard work
- a well-crafted portfolio
- a solid academic performance
- writing skills.

Students may apply more than once.

Coming to Oswego as a Freshmen
Freshmen are strongly encouraged to attend Oswego as BA majors and apply for the BFA during their sophomore year. This allows students time to understand the demands of the program and to build a portfolio for admission. Freshmen are enrolled in courses that are designed to specifically help them address their development as artists, including exploring the benefits of BFA versus BA degrees. If a student is denied admission into a BFA, he or she can apply again, or consider alternative study plans. Academic advisors are able to assist students in this situation.

Coming to Oswego as a Transfer Student
Transfer students with Associate Degrees in Art or Graphic Design should consider applying to the BFA before coming to Oswego. Students without degrees, or those with degrees in other areas, should come to Oswego and work with an advisor here to determine the degree program most appropriate for their development. All transfer students are enrolled in courses that are designed to specifically help them address their development as an artist, including exploring the benefits of BFA versus BA degrees.

All transfer students should keep in mind that no more than 27 hours of Studio Art/Graphic Design credit may be transferred into the BA program and no more than 40 hours of studio art, graphic design, or art history credit may be transferred into the BFA program.

Application Requirements

Annotated Work List
The annotations should include: name, size, medium, date, and a brief statement as to the purpose of the work, such as why and for whom it was done. Please be thorough in describing the work. Indicate whether or not the project was done for a class, and whether or not it depicts your own solutions to the problem. Explain why you made the choices that you made. Remember, we are looking for evidence that you can create your own imagery, as well as evidence that you have the fortitude to discipline yourself, and build skills, and hand-eye coordination. We want to see a balance of original work as well as the studies all artists do to gain skill and ability. [The annotated work list is where you prove you have done the work and understand what that means.]

Written Statement
Please include a 500-1000 word written statement that describes your art/design work, your interest in art, and your future career plans. As a professional artist, designer or educator you will be required to write about your work and it is essential that you are able to describe your work to a diverse clientele. Writing statements are carefully examined; grammatical and spelling mistakes are not acceptable.

First, describe one or more of your artworks in terms of its visual formal elements including: line, space, light, color, texture, design, and the other elements of composition. Secondly, carefully analyze the content of one or more of your pieces. What meaning is communicated to the viewer and how is this achieved? Compare one of your pieces to that of a well-known artist or graphic designer. When discussing your future plans at Oswego, be sure to address your previous experiences in art and your long-term career goals. What qualities do you possess that would ensure your success?

Transcripts
Submit an unofficial copy of your academic transcripts. These may be copies given to you by your school and stamped as such by the transcript office of the school issuing the document. Do not submit a transcript printed from the web that does not show your name. Transcripts must be included in the application. Please do not send transcripts under separate cover or ask us to get them for you.

Application Form
The application included in this document must be filled out in its entirety and included in the portfolio. Additional application forms can be downloaded from our web site at www.oswego.edu/art/.
