

How to View Your Test Submission

Unlike ANGEL, test submission information is not visible in the course content after you leave the page. As with ANGEL, what test information is available for review is controlled by your professor. It is possible to let you review your submission immediately after completing the test from within the content area. However, once you exit the page you are not typically able to return to the quiz to view your submission. Instead you must go to My Grades to view your submission.

1. Click on My Grades

2. Click on the title of the quiz you want to view.
