BUILD YOUR BRAND

- Test Drive Your Career: a very popular program that enables us to bring a number of students to your workplace for a brief informational tour and conversations with both new hires and seasoned veterans about your organization, industry, and potential opportunities.
- Pizza With Professionals: Similar to our Test Drive programs, but we host you on campus, order pizza and drinks, and spend time discussing professional life at your organization.
- Student Organizations: We can connect you with relevant student organizations to explore guest speaker or event participation options.
- Mock Interview Program: We'll build a schedule of students interested in honing their interviewing skills.
- Information Nights: Come to campus and discuss with interested students your organization, potential career paths, and next steps.
- Tabling: We can reserve table space for you in our Marano Campus Center or relevant academic buildings.
- Campus Newspaper and Radio: Feel free to contact the Oswegonian (315.312.2500) or WNYO (315.312.2500) to discuss ad/air time, schedules, rates, and more.
- Partner Program: Show your commitment to SUNY Oswego students through heightened involvement in our events. Sponsoring an Etiquette Dinner or networking event is just one branding strategy!

RECRUIT OUR STUDENTS

- Consultation Visits: Maximize your time at Oswego by scheduling a consultation with our staff. We'll work with you to craft a customized approach to our students that will meet your needs.
- On-Campus Interviews: We'll send you resumes of candidates that match your hiring needs and schedule a time to interview students on campus for your open positions.
- Student Organizations: We'll send you resumes of candidates that match your hiring needs and schedule a time to interview students on campus for your open positions.
- Classroom Visits: We'll work with you to connect with the faculty and classes that will put you in touch with your ideal student cohort.
- Posting Vacancies: Advertise your open positions to SUNY Oswego students and alumni through our online database "LakerJobs."
- Resume Referral: Post a position through us and we'll actively market, collect resumes, and distribute them to you electronically at a deadline of your choosing.
- Internships and Co-ops: We work closely with our Center for Experiential Learning and will be happy to refer you to professionals who can assist you in setting up a formal relationship with SUNY Oswego for these positions.
- Career Fairs and Other Events: Our multiple career fairs each attract hundreds of students eager to learn about your organization and opportunities during and after college. Recruiters report our students are highly prepared, well dressed, and ready to launch! Brand your table, and prepare to talk a LOT.

PRINCIPLES FOR PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Career Services helps students choose and attain personally rewarding careers and assists employers in developing effective college relations programs that contribute to effective candidate selections for their organizations.

EMPLOYERS PRINCIPLES

- Be responsible for conduct of your organization's representatives throughout the recruiting process.
- Use qualified, informed, and trained interviewers.
- Make a full and accurate presentation of your organization, employment opportunities, and other relevant information during the recruiting process.
- Maintain the confidentiality of student information.
- Cooperate with the policies and procedures of the Career Services Office.
- Respect the legal obligations of Career Services and request only those services or information that legally can be provided.
- Advise Career Services of all recruiting-related activities not conducted through that office.
- Reimburse student expenses that are incurred on plant/office visits.
