METHODS	STUDENT TEACHING Q1/Q3	STUDENT TEACHING Q2/Q4
Submitting your edTPA portfolio for Methods will go to your Methods professor. This is a just for your practice and for the Methods class.	Submitting your edTPA portfolio for student teaching will go to your supervisor who will edit it and return it to you.	At this point your supervisor from Q1/Q3 has looked over your initial draft and you’ve made changes and submitted it. You’ll then have to go through Pearson to submit it for your certification.

General Information

1. After logging into Tk20, go to the side menu at the bottom and click PORTFOLIOS . As an education major, you’ll have 3 main portfolios to complete, one during methods, and two during student teaching.
2. IN METHODS (Block 3) You will take the Draft edTPA. In your portfolios, it’s labeled as, for example, Elementary Education DRAFT edTPA - Methods. If it does not say Methods next to it, you are not in the right portfolio. This is only a practice edTPA, to prepare you for next semester.

3. IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF STUDENT TEACHING (First half of Block 4), you will complete the first Draft of the official edTPA. This portfolio will be completed by the end of the first quarter of student teaching, to be reviewed by your supervisor. In Tk20, it is labeled as, for example, "DRAFT edTPA for Student Teaching – ELE".

4. IN THE LAST QUARTER OF YOUR STUDENT TEACHING (Second half of Block 4), your supervisor will review with you the content of what you submitted. Once you feel content with your revisions, you will submit your full edTPA with revisions to Tk20 under the label of your major. For example, Elementary Education, for CED majors. Not all OFFICIAL edTPA files look the same, please see your student teaching supervisor for details on where to find your portfolio. The Draft edTPA you completed in the first quarter of student teaching, will be the one that you revise/edit, submit, and then to Pearson.
