

SUNY Oswego Educational Opportunity Program Student Responsibilities

As an Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) student at SUNY Oswego, I will adhere to and commit to the ideals of the program and to the achievement of my educational goals. To ensure that I am successful here at SUNY Oswego, I will do the following:

Academic Responsibilities:

- I will demonstrate respect on a daily basis to myself, my instructors and my peers.
- I will respect my instructor's attendance policies. In addition, I will attend all classes prepared. This includes reading and completing all assignments. I will strive to do my best in each class.
- I will arrive to my classes on time and stay throughout the class period.
- I will respect appropriate college classroom behavior as defined by my instructors.
- I will attend tutoring sessions.

Program Responsibilities:

- I will meet with my assigned EOP Academic Planning Counselor (APC) two (2) times during the summer program. I will discuss with my APC, in a timely manner, any personal, academic, or financial problems that could affect my performance at SUNY Oswego.
- Complete and submit all required applications and financial aid documentation as outlined by the EOP and/or Financial Aid offices.
- Participate in all EOP Summer Program activities and academic programs.

EOP students are expected to comply with all policies, rules, regulations and directives of SUNY Oswego and its related entities, including but not limited to those policies set forth in the College's Student Handbook and, Residence Life and Housing Manual. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in programmatic action/dismissal in conjunction with campus disciplinary action.

I hereby accept this offer to participate in the EOP Program and will comply with this agreement.
