

LEADERSHIP

March 13, 2019

Workshop Description:

This one-day workshop is intended to provide participants with an opportunity to acquire knowledge about models of leadership, and then to acquire insights about their own strengths and areas for development. Participants will acquire knowledge of models of leadership, and they will be able to interactively reflect on their own leadership style and consider ways that they can leverage the strengths of their style, as well as to develop and refine areas that might be less familiar for them. Participants will learn about leadership as a process of influence, and they will learn about the different roles of a leaders. After this workshop, participants will have drafted their plan for ongoing reflection, development, and evaluation of their progress as leaders.
