

How to complete Oswego Online Orientation

1. Login to Blackboard: <https://www.oswego.edu/blackboard/home>, and log in with your Oswego.edu email and password.
2. Once you are in Blackboard, look under the section called My Courses. Find the course called Oswego Online Orientation [your term; ex. Spring 2022].
3. You should see a page like the one below.

Find Learning Modules on the left hand side. You might need to click on the gray bar on the left hand side to make the menu appear. Click on Online Orientation Modules. (Please see the page 2)

On top of the Learning modules, international students are required to complete the “International Module” as well.

How to find the international module

1. Go into Blackboard
2. On the right hand side under Learning Modules, click on Online Modules. That will show you all the content that is available.

The screenshot shows the Blackboard interface with a dark navigation bar at the top containing 'Build Content', 'Assessments', 'Tools', and 'Partner Content'. Below this, two modules are listed. The first module is 'International Students', which is available but has some access restrictions. The second module is 'Module 1: Welcome to SUNY Oswego', which is available with statistics tracking.
