

Reaching For Our Future

August 18, 2021

8:00 am

Marano Campus Center Arena

Restoring our Perspectives and Strengths

- Fostering student success
- Inspiring insight on institutional excellence
- Re-engaging campus networks and interconnections

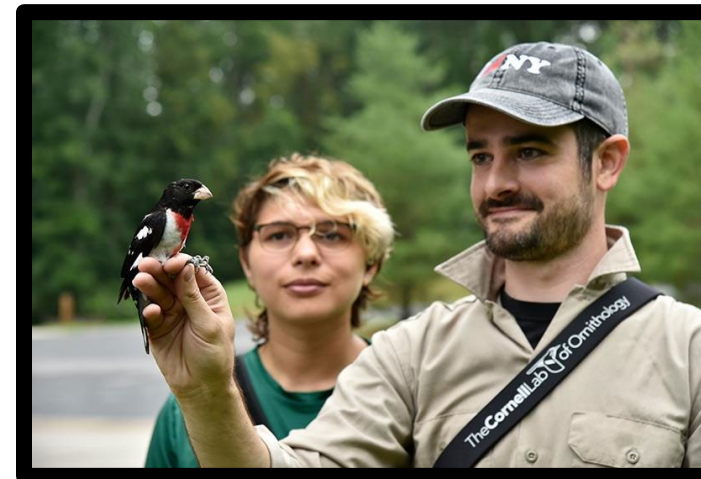

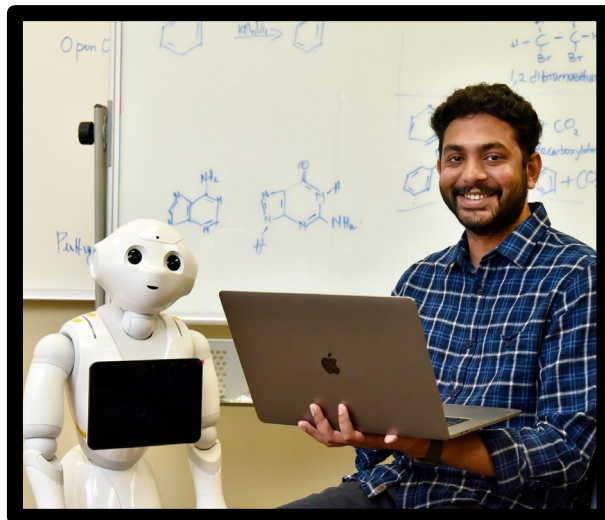

Recruitment and Retention

- Define and initiate campus wide recruitment and retention efforts

Academic Affairs

- Articulate the philosophy of our academic mission, collaborations, and pathways for interaction
- Identify the threads of purpose throughout

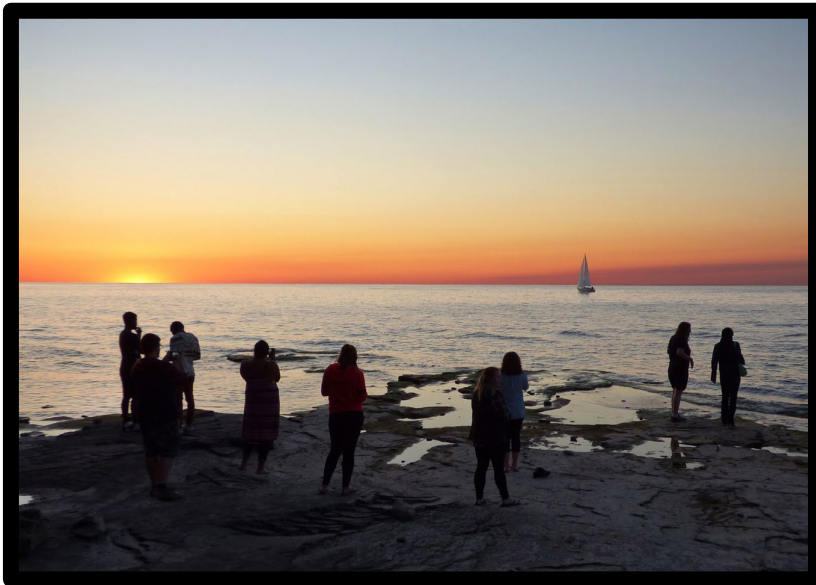

Student Affairs

- Articulate the identity and overarching holistic philosophy to student life and development
- Foster student recognition of genuine hallmarks

Collective Impact

- Define our cross functional and inter-disciplinary endeavors to encourage student success at SUNY Oswego
- Encourage pathways to forge student intellectual growth and development through seamless deployment of faculty, staff, students, and alumni across all divisions

The Institute for Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Transformative Practice

- Work to attain a truly diverse, inclusive, and just campus community
- Embrace diversity, equity and inclusion as hallmarks of excellence at SUNY Oswego
- Incentivize and reward scholarship and contribution about race
- Translate our perspectives and knowledge into the greater community

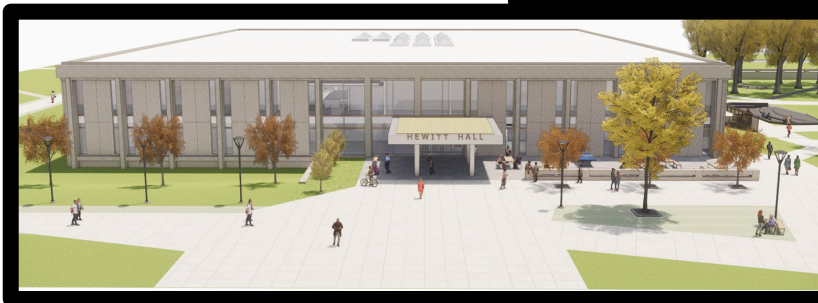

Panoramic View of SUNY Oswego

- Understand and highlight our assets and leverage our distinctions, differentials, and compelling advantages
- Develop comprehensive promotional materials and plans for information campaigns to support our priorities and aspirations by growing recognition and reputation

Deliberate and Constant Stewardship

- Build institutional knowledge and ability relative to campus resources and assets

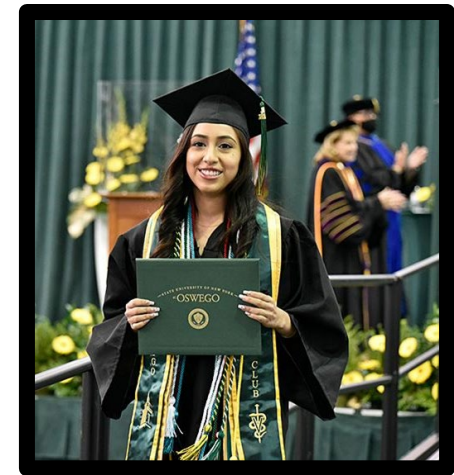

Caring and Effective Service

- Support a Culture of Caring in every office
- Weave respect and response into our business processes
- Invest in positive campus culture

Reaching For Our Future

Thank you!

May the year ahead and many years to come engage you in all the deep and meaningful pursuits and the inestimable satisfactions of this vital academic community that is SUNY Oswego.