Developing a Leadership Framework for Disrupting Poverty with Mary Pagan

Mary Pagan is a certified trainer for Bridges out of Poverty. The two-night workshop provides Project BLEND scholars with the professional and personal leadership and resiliency tools for understanding and developing educational and school/community action plans viewing poverty as a major risk factor of academic achievement.