As the renter of this refrigerator, I understand that:

1. I am responsible for the loss of this unit due to theft, abandonment, and damage. The replacement cost is $200 for the 3.1 cu. ft. refrigerator. This can be assessed after I have checked out of my room and left campus.
2. I should not remove the refrigerator from the above room unless I change room assignments. If I do change room assignments, I will notify my new Residence Hall Director that I am in possession of a college refrigerator.
3. If I withdraw from school prior to the end of the rental agreement, I will notify Residence Life and Housing. I can either return the unit or transfer it to another student provided that we both contact Residence Life to verify the transfer.
4. The refrigerator unit will be delivered to your room and is to be cleaned and defrosted and left in the room prior to leaving campus at the end of the rental period. The hall custodial staff will check the condition and number of the unit after the room has been vacated.
5. I will be billed after I have left campus if the specific unit assigned to me ($200.00) is not left in my room, cleaned, and defrosted ($25 per hour cleaning charge).
6. If I rented the refrigerator for the fall semester only, I have until October 15th to pay and convert the rental to a full year. After this date if I decide to rent the unit for the spring semester I will be charged the semester rate.

I hereby understand and agree to the rental agreement conditions above:
