

Traveling to and from SUNY Oswego

Get to know Easy to use, hard to beat.

- Centro is the public transportation provider for Onondaga, Oswego, Cayuga, and Oneida counties, which includes the cities of Syracuse, Oswego, and Fulton. Inter-city service connects Syracuse and Onondaga County with the city of Oswego.
- Centro provides students with transportation around the SUNY Oswego campus and within the city of Oswego.
- Centro stops at the Regional Transportation Center, where the Greyhound, Trailways, and Amtrak connections are located.

Blue Route? Green Route?

These FREE routes can help you get around campus and places including Rice Creek Field Station or the Village.

10

The Blue Route travels in twenty-minute intervals between the Marano Campus Center and The Village with multiple stops in front of various residence halls.

11

The Green Route travels in thirty-minute intervals from the Marano Campus Center to the Romney Field House and Rice Creek Field Station.

SUNY Oswego students with a valid student ID with a Student Association sticker may ride Centro free on all Oswego City routes.

Regional Transportation Center

The William F. Walsh Regional Transportation Center (RTC) is Central New York's transportation center for inter-city and local travel via Centro, Greyhound, Trailways, and Amtrak.

Syracuse Hancock International Airport

The airport is Central New York's gateway to the world with nonstop service to 24 cities across the East Coast, Midwest, and West.

The airport includes two concourses and 20 gates serving six airlines.

Allegiant	JetBlue	Delta Air
American	United	Frontier

There is no Centro Service to the airport.

College Express

College Express is a charter bus company located on Long Island, N.Y., that provides an express bus service to several stops in the downstate region on select dates during the semester.

You can find more information, or purchase tickets at collegeexpressbus.com.

Uber, Lyft, and taxis are available. Some taxi companies offer student discounts.

More information can be found on the Break Transportation website: oswego.edu/break-transportation