If you observe distressed or disruptive behavior by any individual on the campus, please contact University Police at 315-312-5555.

In all cases, the College will scan other campus offices to check the student’s demeanor in other contacts: (Residence Life, Student Activities, and Intercollegiate Athletics); Associate Provost will check with faculty for attendance and other behavior indicators in the academic realm.

If you feel that a student is in imminent danger of causing harm to others:
- Contact University Police 315-312-5555 OR 911
  - University Police will contact Counseling Center
  - Dean of Students
  - Residence Life (if resident)
  - As appropriate
  - Dispatch Counselor to location
  - Resolve Issue or Transport

If you feel that a student is unstable, or in distress, or disruptive:
- Contact Dean of Students 315-312-3378 or deanstaf@oswego.edu
  - who will arrange meeting of Behavioral Intervention Team to develop strategies to reach out to student and address the behavior.

If you feel that a student is troubled or disturbed but demonstrates no imminent danger to others:
- Contact Counseling Center 315-312-4416 during business hours OR University Police 315-312-5555 OR 911 after business hours.
  - A check on the student’s welfare will be done.

If you feel that a student is troubled or disturbed but demonstrates no imminent danger to others:
- Contact University Police 315-312-5555 OR 911
  - University Police will contact Counseling Center
  - Dean of Students
  - Residence Life (if resident)
  - As appropriate
  - Contact
  - University Police will contact Counseling Center
  - Dean of Students
  - Residence Life (if resident)
  - As appropriate
  - Transport Immediately

Reporting Source
(faculty/staff, student, parent, friends, etc.)