Appeal Procedures
College Level Hearing

Appeals from the decision of a college level hearing body/officer shall be directed in writing by the respondent to the Rebecca Nadzadi, Assistant Dean of Students within five (5) class days of the respondent’s receipt of the written decision. The letter should be addressed to the Appellate Hearing Committee, 501 Culkin Hall, SUNY Oswego, New York 13126. The letter should indicate that the subject of the letter is an appeal of a disciplinary action, which resulted from a disciplinary hearing, and also provide the date of the hearing. You cannot submit the appeal via email, it must be hand delivered or mailed.

In the letter, respondents may share with the Appellate Hearing Committee any information that they feel is important for the committee to know. You may attach letters of reference if desired. It may be helpful for respondents to review the letter with your advisor before it is submitted and make sure that your letter contains all that is important to you. You must also include your current address, email address and phone number.

Appeals may be made only on one or more of the following grounds:

A) There was significant procedural error of a nature sufficient to have materially and detrimentally affected the outcome.
B) There is significant new evidence of which the appellant was previously aware; that the appellant could not have discovered through the exercise of reasonable diligence; and the absence of which was sufficient to have materially and detrimentally affected the outcome.
C) The sanction(s) imposed is grossly disproportionate to the charges found to have occurred.

Any one or any combination of the criteria for the appeal may be addressed. In each case, it is important to explain the reasons for appeal. In the case of disproportionate sanction(s), it is important to indicate which sanction you are referring to.

The Appellate Hearing Committee shall review the decision on the consideration of the grounds of appeal listed and shall provide the Code Administrator with explanation of any modification of the decision. The Code Administrator will then send the Respondent written notification via e-mail. This appeal is final within the campus conduct system.

Respondents may request a Presidential Review of the case by submitting the request in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management. The Vice President will forward all relevant with documents pertaining to the case to the President of the College. However, whether or not the case will be reviewed is the prerogative of the President.

The Code of Conduct requires that five (5) class days be allowed for an appeal to be submitted. During recess periods it is our practice to waive the five-day class requirement, however encourage you to submit the letter of appeal within the time requirement as designated by the Code Administrator.
